1. Grading Issues
 - a. Pass-fail-We are not doing this. We are keeping GPA format.
 - b. I grades. Try to stay away from Incompletes
 - c. President's Awards
2. Withdrawals-extended into May
3. Changes in student status-student standing -if you improve as a student group
4. Online review of LMS responses-May 22nd deadline. Feedback 50/50
5. Internal grants are being reviewed. We don't quite have enough money. But the COB should be good.
6. Advising for the fall and summer
7. FEC
 - a. Going forward in the fall-There are not any student evaluations for Spring. Fall and Summer semester shells are on Blackboard now. Maybe online for Fall.
 - b. Online seminars/Q&A for those going up for tenure and new faculty
8. Updates from grad council meeting (if any) MBA fully online. Accepted international for Fall. Phasing to solely online. Grad Council voted to keep courses at 16 weeks for fall and spring and 8 weeks for summer.
9. Updates from undergrad curriculum (if any) Finished. Thanks to Drs. Parboteeah and Luhman.
10. Other concerns or issues-
 - a. Budget-there isn't any ER&R money. Every open line is frozen. No raises-maybe? Don't spend money we have left. Use only what you need to. 3.5 decrease in operating funds.
 - b. Contracts will be online. 4% raise is in the contract. Depending on legislature this could go away.
 - c. Online recruiting-Facebook campaign ended March 31st. We will do Facebook in the fall and maybe you tube if money is available.
 - d. Government doesn't want to issue student visas.
