

80-7 Addendum 1: Exposure Determination

All Eastern New Mexico University employees in the following job classifications have been identified as having occupational exposure as defined in AGP&P, 80-7 Addendum 2:

Faculty:

Director, Child Development Center

Faculty who work with blood specimens in teaching and/or research laboratories

Support Staff:

Cook at Child Development Center

Custodians (non-residential)

Custodians (residential)

Equipment supervisor (PE Complex)

Groundskeepers responsible for trash collection

Laborers assigned to plumbers

Plumbers

Professional Staff:

Athletic coaches (recreational, lifeguards, basketball, football, volleyball, tennis, baseball, etc.)

Athletic trainer

Chief, University Police

Director, Health Services

Head teacher, Child Development Center

Nurses

Physicians

Police officers

Safety officer

Student Employees:

Residence Hall directors and assistants

Student coach who works with cheerleaders

Students who work with athletic coaches

Students who work with athletic trainer

Students who work with blood specimens in teaching and/or research laboratories

Students who work with children at the Child Development Center

Students who work with equipment supervisor (PE Complex)

Approved by the Board of Regents on December 16, 2005.