Mr. Gonzales called the meeting to order at 1:42 pm.

Mr. Gonzales asked for nominations for a new chairperson.

Dr. Ken Cradock nominated to be chair: Motion (J Laurenz/B Small) passed unanimously.

Minutes from 4/21/21 were approved (B Small/S Beinlich) Passed unanimously.

Budget Update: Scott Smart: The fall semester started and we have fewer student then we were hoping for. We are looking at about 4 or 5 percent decline in student credit hour. Each 1 percent that we are down is approximately 200 thousand dollars plus or minus, so if we are down 4 percent that is about 800 thousand we will be short on our tuition and fees budget. Sounds like a big number, but the whole budget is manageable. We have contingency dollars that are inside the budget that we do not have allocated or anticipated toward a planned expense, so when some of these revenues drop we reduce the contingency dollars with no negative effect on the budget. We did not raise tuition and fees as we figured the student have had enough to deal with during the COVID pandemic. We also had already budgeted for a one or two percent decline in enrollment which should not have a material impact on Instruction and General. Auxiliaries are going to be the challenge. Dr Long and I are taking a look at the Sodexo contract to see if we can help them out. We have about half the number of students in the residence halls and the dining programs, the residence halls, dining and the bookstore combined would contribute three-quarter of a million dollars in net income which was put aside for repairs and things need for the auxiliary areas. Athletics is also included in the auxiliary areas, so the new turf for the girls' softball field we will be funding ourselves. When dining was running at full capacity labor costs were at about 20% of gross revenues, with the current status Sodexo is predicting labor costs will be at 71%. We are still working on the salary compression regarding the minimum wage increase, as well as asking departments to look at what they really need regarding student hires and reducing hours to give the department who are in need more money.

Legislative Update: Scott Smart: There is a large amount of general funds monies, the governor is the one who determines how this is allocated. We suspect a large amount of that will go to repair roads. We are continuing to look at the imbalance of state appropriations. I have a meeting with Senators Ingle and Munoz to work on closing the gap. We are hoping to get the state to allocate the extra monies in the GO bond allocated for the existing projects instead of new. We are not the only institution having issues with completion of existing projects due to inflation of construction and material costs.

Capital Projects and Construction Update: Scott Smart: We are struggling with the Roosevelt Science Center. We are having to bid this project at the worst time. With construction inflation this project went from 17 million to about 22 million. The extra 5 million is coming from the university.

Even with that increase in funds we are still about 1.5 million short. We are hoping the state will allow the use of the extra in the GO Bond fund as mentioned above.

The next bond project we are looking at is the SAS building renovation. The state is asking us not to renovate the building but to build a new building. We would raze Harding and build the new SAS in its place. To renovate the old building the architects estimated it at 17 million. To build a new building they estimated it at 16 million. The new SAS building will be on the request for the 2022 GO Bond.

Other Reports:

Academic Affairs: Dr Laurenz: We are up and running

Student Affairs: Dr. Long: Sodexo negotiation for slight reduction of hours. You are allowed to ask students who are not masked to show documentation from Accessibility office that allows them not to be masked

ITS: Mr. Elswick: Everything is good from the technology point of view. We did make improvements in the Smart Classroom, with cameras and microphones that are movable. MFA is almost done we only have faculty left. We are trying to get everyone's email up in the cloud for more security.

Old Business:

New Business Strategic Plan with new initiatives for 2021-2022 was reviewed by Dr. Laurenz, Dr. Long, Scott Smart and Benito Gonzales. See the plan below.
