

Name

e-mail, phone, LinkedIn

Summary of Qualifications

Solutions-driven Computer Science graduate with familiarity in Linux, and proficiency in Java, Windows, and Office products. Quick learner with strong collaborative and leadership skills, as demonstrated by, holding the office of President of Computer Science Club. Also, main contributor to project "Wheel of Code" with Math Department Chair, ENMU.

Specialized Skills

- Bilingual (Spanish/English)
- Debugging
- Python (Programming Language)
- Java (Programming Language)
- GUI (Graphical User Interface)
- SQLite

Education

Bachelor of Science, Computer Science-Minor in Math

Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, NM

May 2017-August 2020

Research Project-Wheel of Code

August 2019 – May 2020

- Created code with Python to scrap information off a website
- Designed database with SQLite to run tests on data
- Constructed methods to return results required
- Collaborated with peer and instructor to coordinate progress and follow time table

Work Experience

August 2019 – May 2020

Computer Science Tutor- ENMU-Portales

- Reviewed all class materials with students, encouraged problem-solving and in-depth analysis
- Provided feedback to students using positive reinforcement, encouragement, and motivation
- Taught students study skills, note-taking skills, and test-taking strategies for Mathematics and Computer Science

Cashier/Customer Service – Lowes, Hobbs, NM - summers

- Issued receipts, refunds, credits, or change due to customers
- Answered customers' questions and provided information on procedures or policies

Leadership and Volunteer Experience

December 2019 – May 2020

Computer Science Club President – ENMU, Portales

- Ensured team building and collaboration for the effective annual planning process
- Communicated with organizations team leaders to resolve issues and coordinate activities
- Reviewed and analyzed legislation and recommended changes for organizational growth and efficiency Science fair volunteer for regional public-school district

Member of Zeta Tau Alpha- ENMU, Portales, NM

August 2017-May 2019

- Fundraising for breast cancer education and awareness
- Director of Membership and Junior Delegate