All students who are under the age of 21 on the first day of class of the fall semester, have earned fewer than 30 semester hours after high school graduation and are enrolled for 12 or more semester hours must live in University residence halls and purchase a meal plan.

Students looking for exemption for the purpose of living at San Juan Village should submit requests as early as possible to avoid time delays due to a large number of last-minute requests. All requests must be submitted to and approved by the Director of Housing before leasing.
